

The Fortnightly Announces Program For The Coming Season 1937-38 Most Interesting Engagements Made

The First Meeting Comes On October Eighth

The Fortnightly of Northfield, the leading and probably the most representative woman's organization steps out with confidence and satisfaction in announcing a program for the ensuing year. The program committee has finished its work and the result of its efforts should be to encourage the large membership to a renewed interest and activity during the coming year. The schedule of meetings and the engagements are as follows:

October 8, The annual luncheon, 1:30 o'clock, at the Northfield hotel. Guest speaker, Julius H. Frandsen, of the Mass. State college on "Glimpse of Denmark." October 22, Miss Ariel Cutler, Peterboro, N. H. on "Dolls" with five hundred from all nations.

November 5, at town hall. "Show Box" Marionettes of Boston. November 19, Guest night. Speaker, Prof. Harry N. Glick of Mass. State college on "Hypnotism." Demonstrations with subject.

December 3, Mrs. Frank Steele, West Cummington on "Antique Glass." December 17, Christmas program. One-act play by club members.

January 7, Aubrey Butler, of Northampton, on "Roses and Gardenias." January 21, Miss Aida Heine of Smith college on "Iceland" with pictures.

February 11, Mrs. Ellen Ely Kyburg of Springfield on "Significant Books of the Time." February 25, Mrs. Robert Parmenter of Springfield on "Normandy and Britain" with pictures.

March 11, Musical program provided by the music committee. March 25, current events by Prof. H. H. Morse of Mt. Hermon.

April 8, "Our National Defenses" speakers to be announced. April 22, The annual meeting. Pictures of Virginia State parks and beautiful Richmond.

Members of the Fortnightly will be pleased with the work of the program committee in outlining such a splendid list and Mrs. Allen H. Wright, the president, and her co-officers are giving the club a most aggressive administration.

To Visit Gardens

The Northfield Garden club will hold its monthly meeting next Monday afternoon and evening. Between 4:00 and 6:30 o'clock the members will visit gardens on Highland avenue and in the Highlands. At 6:30 the members will gather at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence LaZelle for a picnic supper.

The gardens to be visited are as follows: Mrs. McRoberts, Mr. and Mrs. Hoehn, Miss Munde and Miss Cullen, Miss Daisy Holton and Mrs. Hodgen, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Mattern, the Northfield Hotel, The Chateau and the Birthplace.

Bible Studies Each Day By Minister

The special Bible studies conducted by Rev. J. East Harrison, former head of the department of English Bible at Mt. Hermon school, are held daily at the Northfield hotel each morning at nine-thirty o'clock until September 15. The public are cordially invited to the sessions. The studies this summer are in the book of First Corinthians.

Sing Rehearsals Are Under Way

Wray T. Lundquist, who conducted the second rehearsal of the Northfield section of the Festival chorus at Music hall on Wednesday evening, is making people sing. During the past week enthusiastic groups have held rehearsals in Greenfield, Springfield, Athol and Northampton and they like to "take it" from Mr. Lundquist. Some of the numbers for the festival are very difficult, but the director's patience and skill in handling the singers have done a lot to make it fun to tackle them.

WRAY T. LUNDQUIST

The local chorus is to be expanded by singers from Winchester, Hinsdale, and Brattleboro. And the children's chorus which has heretofore been a strictly Northfield affair is to have a large number of youngsters from Winchester, where Rev. E. S. Buck of the Federated church, is getting together the children from his daily vacation Bible school.

Lundquist wants all singers in the community to help make this the best festival held here. Rehearsals are set for eight o'clock in Music hall of the Seminary campus on Wednesday evenings. Music is supplied without cost by the Northfield Schools. The children's chorus practices at 3 o'clock on Wednesdays at the same place.

Henry W. Rankin

Henry W. Rankin, aged 86, died early Thursday morning at the Franklin county hospital in Greenfield of pneumonia, after an illness of but five days. He was born March 8, 1851 and was the son of missionary parents in China, and after his graduation from Princeton university and further study in Europe, he came to Northfield at the age of 30 offering his services to Moody for the then young work begun at Northfield and Mount Hermon. He assisted in the arrangements for the second August conference in 1881 and spent many years at Mt. Hermon, where he gave freely of his time and means to the students, who at that time were younger boys. He was active in the formation of a library at Hermon, and opened the door into a world of books for many a Hermon boy.

About 1890 he made his home at Northfield, where a few years later he built a home, later moved to Highland avenue. Mr. Rankin was a valued friend to many a student and his home was a place of rest and inspiration to many.

In more recent years, after seeking medical help in sanatoria, Mr. Rankin returned to Northfield from time to time, and for the past two years has made his home with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Barrows on Winchester road, walking daily to the village where he greeted his friends. He was keenly interested in world affairs, and in matters of religion. He leaves a sister, Mrs. Janvier of Allahabad, India, several cousins and relatives. The funeral service will be held in Mt. Hermon chapel today (Friday) at 2:30 o'clock. Other details being arranged upon the arrival of his cousin, Mrs. J. M. Cobb of Summit, N. J.

Wendell's Old Home Day has been fixed for Wednesday Aug. 4. It will attract the usual number from Northfield.

Mr. Broun Returns; Speaks On "Trails" This Friday Evening

"The Northfield" on Friday of this week will welcome back with great enthusiasm Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Broun who will be with us for a brief stay of a day or two. During this visit Mr. Broun will go over the trails he blazed last spring and this spring, clearing up and renewing labels and investigating new plants.

Mr. Maurice Broun visits in the course of a summer season many of the "Real New England Inns" for the purpose of blazing nature trails, studying and discovering plants, and spying the various birds that linger in the natural fields and woods that surround so many of Mr. Treadway's Inns.

We are particularly pleased to welcome the Brouns for even this short visit as we appreciate the opportunity they will present for us to renew our acquaintance with these woods about us and the life they harbor.

Among his trails are The Nature Trail, Ferny Brook Trail, and The Circuit Trail.

The first, The Nature Trail, is a one-mile circuit which starts at the golf house on The Northfield golf course. This is a delightful path winding its way through the narrow ledge of woods beyond the south lawn of The Northfield.

The second, Ferny Brook Trail is a charming path, seven-eighths of a mile long, beginning at the south side of the Chateau and winding along a fern-hung brook leading to Northfield's only waterfall, and site of the Old Grist Mill.

The above trails are not the kind that have been made by cutting down trees and paving stone, not even wide paths, but mere trails with here and there ferns overlapping. Where tiny brooks cross, a few stones have been placed on which to step. Along the paths small signs give the information that is educational and informative. For instance, one comes to a sign with a picture of a bird and this lettering: "Chestnut-sided warblers may greet you along the way. 'Very pleased to meet you' they will sing. These birds are abundant in our region from May to September. They winter in Central America."

Nearby one is surprised to see Japanese Barberry, so surprised in fact that he reads the label to make sure he is not mistaken. "It is an escape from cultivation," he reads.

Farther into the woods one wanders, with the sun striking through the trees and across the trail, and here and there, and nothing to disturb the stillness except the song of birds or the chirp of a cricket at places where the trail winds near the edge of a field. On one tree is a quotation from Lowell that befits its location:

"Who does his duty is a question too complex to be solved by me."

But he, I venture the suggestion, does part of his that plants a tree."

The third, The Circuit Trail, is Mr. Broun's latest work and one of which The Northfield boasts with selfish pride. Beginning off the Winchester highway, it takes in Pulpit Falls, a beautiful rock formation and waterfall, one-third of a mile from the road; Ben's Pond, a place to rest, two-thirds of a mile; Deserter Village, where one may see cellar dug-outs and dried apple trees, proof of an earlier farm village, one mile; Big Birch, largest known birch of its kind in the world, one and a half miles; and Balanced Rock; Hog's Back Mountain (1,000 ft. elevation with view of Monadnock), one and five-eighths miles; Northfield Reservoir (a delightful picnic spot) two and three-eighths miles; Old Orchard (an early settlement) three and three-eighths miles; Garnet Rock (700 ft. elevation) three and seven-eighths miles, from which a magnificent view is obtained; and the trail ends at The Northfield garage in back of the hotel. Distance, 4 7/8 miles. This is a hike you will never forget.

Although Mr. Broun's heart is obviously bound voluntarily to his fascinating work, it would be unfair not to mention that his charming wife offers great assistance in the sketches she makes for the educational plaques that line these trails. Her work provides the picture and the spirit of what Mr. Broun so enthusiastically presents.

On Friday evening Mr. Broun will present an informal talk in The Northfield parlors which

The Eastern U. P. Youth Conference Convenes Saturday

Tomorrow (Saturday) will open the Eastern United Presbyterian Youth conference. Officially known as "The Eastern Workers Conference of the United Presbyterian Church" this gathering comes to Northfield this year for the first time. The decision to transfer the conference here from Stony Brook, New York, where it has been held for ten years, followed the 44th Y. P. C. U. convention which was held here in 1936.

Dr. J. Walter Liggitt of Philadelphia is chairman of the committee in charge and Mr. John C. O'Melia of Providence, R. I., is registrar.

Speakers will include: Dr. H. H. McConnell, pastor, Second U. P. church, Wilkesburg, Pa., who will conduct the daily vespers service, and Rev. F. E. Vogan of Drexel Hill, Pa., in charge of morning devotions. Dr. Stillman Foster, pastor of the U. P. church at Indiana, Pa., and Rev. T. Milton Scott of East Greenwich, R. I., will conduct the Bible study groups; and among the other courses and leaders are the following: Young People's Methods of Mack Shaw, secretary for Young People's Work; Religious Education, Dr. Richard W. Graves, Associate Editor, Christian Union Herald.

Religious Education Conference Convenes On Next Monday

Several hundred young folks and some older ones will come to Northfield next Monday to remain through the 31st for serious study and conference.

The thirty-fourth annual session of this interdenominational and non-sectarian summer training school for Christian leadership offers a comprehensive and modern curriculum. The thirty-five courses cover Bible study, personal religion, methods, adult education, administration, music, worship, and other subjects.

The faculty list is headed by Dean Herbert W. Gates who is assisted by the Rev. Roy L. Minich of Malden, dean of young people. Mr. Alden M. Hammond of Providence has succeeded Judge Parker as chairman. Also on the faculty are: Dr. Hugh Vernon White of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions; Professor James P. Berkeley of the Andover-Newton Theological seminary; Dr. Frank Jennings, executive secretary, Massachusetts Council of Churches; and Dr. Edna L. Acheson of the Munn Avenue Presbyterian church, East Orange, N. J. There will be a special observance of the Moody centenary on Round Top at a date to be announced later at which Dean Gates will deliver the address.

Tuesday Was Rally Day At Conference

Rally Day at the Northfield Missionary conference was held Tuesday when 275 layworkers and ministers from over 20 cities and towns within 50 miles of Northfield joined the 600 delegates in the classes and worship services of the day.

At noon a picnic lunch was enjoyed on the Seminary campus lawns, coffee being served by the Northfield management. Many of the visitors attended Miss Schultz's class on "The Moslem World," hearing her say that the ultimate struggle would be between Mohammedanism and Christianity. Dr. Samuel Guy Inman, consulting authority for President Roosevelt at the Latin America conference last fall in Buenos Aires, stated that at the present time the outlook for a permanent peace in the Western World was the best ever.

which will undoubtedly create much interest in nature. He will spend approximately half an hour on ferns, wild flowers, and the interesting plants in this locality, then about a half hour on birds. After this variety talk, guests will probably wish to question Mr. Broun on the various aspects of the trails about and will find him stocked with the knowledge they seek.

In brief, Mr. Broun's unusual and interesting "profession" has come about through intense study and diligent concentration to his chosen field. Four months of the year he spends at Hawk Mountain sanctuary in Pennsylvania. He is rapidly growing with his work and many of his articles have been accepted by well-known magazines, among them "The Geographic."

Sessions Are Ended; Delegates Return With Enthusiasm

The sessions of the Missionary conference which began on July 7th ended yesterday and nearly a thousand delegates who have attended returned to their homes and churches filled with missionary zeal and determined to increase their interest and effort.

The theme of the conference was "Fullness of Life" and missionaries from many lands and well known speakers were heard from the platform, both at Sage chapel and at the auditorium. Courses in Bible, worship, social problems, and other subjects were taught by recognized leaders and a study made of the mission books for the coming year: "The Church in Rural America" and "The Moslem World," and further enriched by a carefully planned program of music and evening sessions of unusual interest. Last Saturday evening was devoted to a "Tribute to D. L. Moody."

Among the special speakers and faculty members were: Dr. Samuel Guy Inman of the Federal Council; Dr. Lawrence Hosie of the Judson Memorial church, New York; Miss Sue Vedell of the Woman's Foreign Mission Board of the Reformed church; Miss Gertrude Schultz, Home Base Secretary, Presbyterian Foreign Missions Board, and others. The conference chairman was Miss Amy O. Welcher.

Officers elected for the missionary conference for the ensuing year were: Mrs. Gala G. Plummer of Melrose, chairman; vice-chairman, Edna M. Springhorn of Scarsdale, N. Y.; secretary, Mrs. Warren C. Taylor of Schenectady; treasurer, Mrs. Harry Hersey of Danbury, Ct.; camp director, Mrs. P. C. Green of Jersey City, N. J.; chairman of program committee, Mrs. H. Lewis Hardy of Springfield; chairman arrangements committee, Mrs. J. H. Rumph of Hollis, N. Y.; chairman of publicity committee, Mrs. Marguerite T. Adams, of Parish, N. Y.; chairman of finance, Frances Burr of New York; chairman of nominations, Mrs. Berryman H. McCoy of Trenton, N. J.; and chairman of literature, Mrs. Milo G. Folsom of Pittsfield, Maine.

Denominations represented in the gathering were: Congregationalists, Presbyterians, Methodists, Reformed, Disciples, Lutherans, Friends, United Presbyterians and Universalists.

J. FINLEY WILLIAMSON

The Westminster Choir school returns to Mt. Hermon for its summer session July 26 to Aug. 16, with Dr. John Finley Williamson, founder and director of the school, in charge. The Northfield Festival of Song will be held Aug. 15, Sunday, and Dr. Williamson with his summer school choir will form the direction and nucleus of the choir.

Puts Up Signs On Rustic Ridge

Since his arrival for the summer season at his home on Rustic Ridge, Rev. W. H. DesJardins has had made and put up, attractive signs which contain the names of all cottage owners on the various streets or lanes. Now as one goes up North Lane he may readily ascertain at each street intersection by a glance at the sign just who lives down that thoroughfare. The signs will be a great aid in locating individuals who have summer homes in Rustic Ridge.

Will Give Recital

Marie Pike and Leon Dunnell will give a duo-piano recital in Phillips hall on the Seminary campus this Friday evening at eight o'clock.

Elder Was Indicted By The Grand Jury On Wednesday

With the sitting of the Grand Jury in the court house on Monday, July 12th, several cases were considered as presented by the District Attorney David H. Keedy. On Wednesday the jury heard the facts in possession of the state against Thomas E. Elder, former Mount Hermon dean who is charged with assault on S. Allen Norton, former cashier of the same school.

Late Wednesday afternoon the jury found a true bill and Mr. Elder was in court to answer. "Guilty or not guilty," said Judge T. J. Hammond. "Not guilty" replied Elder. Bail in the sum of $10,000 was continued and the case will come up for a hearing and trial. It is quite likely that the trial will be deferred until the next sitting of court in the fall.

Charles Fairhurst is counsel for Mr. Elder. The Grand Jurors were: Samuel Aaron, Greenfield; Earl Bascom, Leverett; Richard P. Berglund, Ashfield; Robert P. Collins, Sunderland; Alvin Fiske Wendell; Albin E. Franz, Mount Hermon; John Gieger, Jr., Shelburne; Marvin J. Haigis, Turners Falls; A. Dean Hillman, Griswoldville; Fred A. Irish, Northfield; Philip C. Johnson, Shutesbury; Robert MacKay, Whately; John G. March, Buckland; Roger Nims, Bernardston; Carl A. Nordstedt, Warwick; Wilfred Poulin, Heath; Michael H. Roche, Orange; Linwood J. Taplin, South Deerfield; Leon H. Turner, Charlemont; Zeno A. Tavernia, Monroe Bridge; William L. Winship, Farley; and Henry D. Wright, Rowe.

The Elder case ranks paramount in popular interest. The former Mt. Hermon dean was arrested at Alton Bay, N. H., on May 26 after Mr. Norton, one-time cashier at Mt. Hermon, told police that his former colleague had confronted him with a shotgun in the driveway of his home at about 11 p. m. the night before.

Mrs. Norton called local police while her husband telephoned Albert E. Roberts, executive secretary of the Northfield schools, who contacted Lieut. Maurice P. Nelligan of Northampton. A cord of state troopers headed by Lieutenants Nelligan and William V. Shimkus, was thrown about the county, but it was not until noon the following day when he returned to his Alton Bay (N. H.) home, declaring that he had spent the night at the Eagle hotel, Keene, N. H.

The alleged assailant was taken to Holden barracks that afternoon, waiving extradition on the advice of his counsel, Atty. Fairhurst, and was held there until late that night, when he was brought to Greenfield, booked and locked in a cell overnight. He was arraigned in district court the following morning, charged with assault with intent to murder, and the case was continued to June 3 with bail set at $10,000. The defendant was then held at the Franklin county jail until the afternoon of May 28 when friends arrived with the necessary bail bonds.

Upon resumption of the case the following week, Judge Philip H. Ball made a finding of "probably guilty" and bound Mr. Elder over to the grand jury, bail being set at the same figure.

Mrs. Fannie Thorne

Mrs. Fannie Victoria Thorne, age 77, died Sunday, July 11, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Homer Browning at Northfield Farms. She had suffered a shock a few days previous.

Mrs. Thorne was born in New York City in 1860, daughter of the late John and Gertrude Beltermann. She remained at home with her parents until Dec. 16, 1880, when she was married to Jacob Schworm of that city. They lived for a time in New York City and went to Erving in 1891. After Mr. Schworm's death in 1898 Mrs. Schworm continued to live in Erving until 1903 when she came to Millers Falls.

In 1904 Mrs. Schworm was married to Jesse Thorne, who died April 9, 1926. Since then she has made her home with her daughters.

She is survived by one sister, Mrs. Sophie King of Paterson, N. J., and three daughters: Mrs. Elizabeth Towne of Millers Falls, Mrs. Homer Browning of Northfield Farms and Mrs. Douglas Smith of Millers Falls.

Funeral services were held at the home of Mrs. Browning on Tuesday afternoon with Rev. W. Stanley Carne officiating. Burial was in Highland cemetery.

The Various Towns Announce Tax Rates; The Comparisons

The announcement of the 1937 tax rate for Northfield in a recent issue has created much concern among our taxpayers. We stated that it was the highest but find that the rate was slightly higher once some years ago. However, it is too high for the average citizen. The editor has received several letters, some unsigned, which were probably intended for publication but owing to the fact that no good can be accomplished by putting them into print and that most of them indulge in personalities we are not printing them. The extravagance of the town is blamed by one, the Finance committee by another, who says they only rubber stamp appropriations and another says that economies are overlooked by our officials. However, John Q. Citizen cannot pass the buck. Every taxpayer votes and in town meeting the die is cast.

Fourteen towns of the 26 in Franklin county have increased their tax rate and the average is slightly above $31, or about 36 cents more than last year. Ten towns have cut their rates and two are the same as last year. The highest rate is that of Orange, at $47.80 while the lowest is that of Monroe of $10, probably the lowest in the state.

The towns showing increases are Bernardston, Buckland, Colrain, Charlemont, Gill, Hawley, Heath, Leyden, Northfield, Orange, Rowe, Shutesbury, Sunderland and Whately.

Towns having lower rates are Conway, Deerfield, Erving, Leverett, Greenfield, Monroe, Montague, New Salem, Warwick, and Wendell.

Here are the rates for the towns of the county:

Ashfield	$30.00
Bernardston	32.80
Buckland	28.00
Charlemont	31.60
Colrain	41.00
Conway	32.00
Deerfield	24.80
Erving	26.00
Gill	33.00
Greenfield	29.20
Hawley	42.00
Heath	34.00
Leverett	35.00
Leyden	33.00
Monroe	10.00
Montague	33.00
New Salem	28.00
Northfield	36.00
Orange	47.80
Rowe	29.00
Shelburne	22.00
Shutesbury	30.00
Sunderland	37.00
Warwick	39.50
Wendell	30.00
Whately	30.800

Mary B. Monat

Mrs. Mary Brunelle Monat, wife of Adelard J. Monat of Northfield, died at the Pondville hospital in Wrentham Monday morning after a lingering illness. Her body was taken to Holyoke, her former home, where funeral services were held in the Gingham funeral home Thursday morning at 8:30 o'clock followed by a solemn high mass of requiem at Perpetual Help church. Burial was in the Notre Dame cemetery. She leaves beside her husband, a sister, Mrs. Amelia Bellecourt of Meriden, Ct., another sister and three brothers in Canada.

The 4-H Camps For Boys And Girls

There are sixty-five boys and girls from all sections of the state camped in the 4-H conservation camps at Goshen and Amherst this week. Thirty-five boys are located at the DAR state forest and thirty girls are receiving training on the Massachusetts State college campus.

Nature courses for the girls are under the direction of Mrs. Ella H. Pray of Amherst. O. T. Bode, wild life specialist from Washington, is also on the program. For the boys, a forestry program is under the direction of Harley A. Leland, assistant state club leader, and Robert B. Parmenter, extension forester at the State college. Earle H. No-dine, assistant state club leader, heads the nature section.

The Teachers' List Is Now Completed

The approval and selection of the teachers for the schools of Northfield has been concluded by the school committee and superintendent L. W. Robbins for the next school year beginning in September. The new teachers selected both temporary and permanent to fill vacancies in the list of last year are Elizabeth Eastman, graduate Keuka college, Flora K. Tait, graduate Framingham with two years' experience, Constance Abbott, graduate Hyannis and Mrs. Donald Williams.

Much is to be expected from the teachers of our schools. Their ability, their personal devotion to the profession, their relations to their pupils and their own habits of living are to be exemplary. Throughout the state there is a real appreciation of the teaching profession and all teachers are being measured by the required standards. Northfield is fortunate in its list of teachers.

The complete roster of teachers in our schools for the season of 1937-38 is as follows: Richard A. Cobb, Evelyn G. Lawley, Julia B. Austin, Elizabeth Eastman, Flora K. Tait, Melvin E. Glazier, Constance Abbott, Helen M. Vorce, Mary E. Dalton, June H. Wright, Esther M. Williams, Katherine Elchert, Ada I. Bready, Elizabeth G. Braley, Batrice Campbell, Dorothy O. Tolman and Verna B. Eastman.

The superintendent of schools is Linville W. Robbins, and the school committee consists of Irving J. Lawrence, Mrs. Carroll Miller and Edgar Livingston.

Pelech - Lematowicz

The wedding of Pauline Anna Lematowicz, daughter of Mr.
 and Mrs. William Lematowicz of Warwick avenue, and Bernard Pelech, son of Mr. and Mrs.
 Joseph Pelech of Hinsdale, was solemnized in St. Patrick's church, Northfield, Saturday morning, July 10, at nine o'clock by the Rev. Father Klekotka of St. John's Roman Catholic church of Millers Falls. The double ring ceremony was used.
 The bride, dressed in white lace and carrying a bouquet of gardenias, was attended by Miss Mildred Pelech as maid of honor and by Tessie Lematowicz, Esther Sytnik, Olga Walda, Annie Kowal and Olga Viltowsky as bridesmaids. The bridesmaids were dressed in blue and pink lace with bouquets of carnations, roses and lilies. The best man was John Lematowicz and the ushers Joseph Butinski, Alec Sikoski, Stephen Matuszewski,
 Theodore Butzcki and William Buraczynski.

After the wedding ceremony a breakfast was served at the town hall with a reception to the bride and groom by the wedding party.
 In the afternoon music was provided by the Machiek orchestra, while friends came and extended congratulations. At six o'clock a banquet was held and the wedding cake cut and during the evening the guests enjoyed dancing in the hall to the music of the orchestra. The flower girls at the wedding ceremony and reception were Viola Sytnik and Annie Lematowicz.
 The bride was educated in the Northfield schools and was for three years a student at the Seminary. After she attended Bay Path Institute and was recently graduated. The groom is a graduate of the Hinsdale high school and is engaged with his father in the large dairy business on the Northfield road in Hinsdale.
 The young couple left at a late hour by motor for a trip through
 New York State to Niagara Falls and will then go to Detroit and return via the Canadian country.
 They will make their home at Hinsdale.

Benjamin F. Coolbrith, age 73, of Rowe, has a woodchuck as a pet. He found him five years ago and keeps him about the house in company with other animals.
 The wood chuck is fed largely upon bananas. He says the chuck which he calls "Chuck" makes a fine pet.

Arrested for speeding in Northfield by State Trooper
 Noone Monday, Raymond Brown of Harwinton, Conn., pleaded nolo through Clerk of Court, William S. Allen and paid a fine of $10.

In Probate court on July 6th with Judge Thompson sitting, the will of Mary E. Silverthorne was allowed, Claire E. Silver-thorne executrix. Accounts were allowed on the estate of the late Cynthia A. Woodard.

Following the sale of the property by auction, a deed has been filed in the Registry at Greenfield transferring property at South Vernon from Fanny S.
 G. Buffum to Marie C. Allen of Vernon, Vt.

The Northfield Grange will hold a food sale on the lawn at the "House of Colton" Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

The schedule of games for the Northfield baseball team as now arranged calls for a game with the Mohawks of Greenfield today on the home grounds. On the 18th they tackle Sunderland at Sunderland; the 21st Sunshine
 Feed here; the 23rd the White Eagles here; 25th, Milton Bradley at Springfield; 28th, Sunderland here; 31st, Milton Bradley here. Games to be played in August will be announced later.

The Festival of Sacred music during this conference season will take place on Sunday, Aug.
 15 on the seminary campus near Round Top. Nearly 400 singers are expected to participate and also a children's chorus of 150.
 Chorus participants will come from many communities within easy access of Northfield. Last year 3000 people attended the festival.

During the meeting of the Missionary conference the audience were privileged to hear a fine singer in the person of Olga Avramova, a graduate of the American Girls' School at Lovetch, Bulgaria who has just completed her studies with the Metropolitan Opera company of New York.

Our townspeople should take advantage of the opportunity to view the wonderful Moody exhibit at the Birthplace which is open to the public without charge on every day of the week except Monday from two to five o'clock. Mr. Fitt has charge of the valuable collection of paintings, photographs, literature, letters, etc. of Dwight L. Moody and they should be seen by all.

The "rolling" railroad hostel
 group led by Monroe Smith,
 American director, are today
 (Friday) at Jasper in Alberta, Canada, and during the week following, visit Vancouver, Victoria, and Seattle. Next Thursday they take the Mt. Ranier trip.

A continued demand exists for the Press of June 25th and the supply is almost exhausted. The paper contains the bird list of Maurice Broun and Prof. Daggett which they enumerated as having seen about Northfield and vicinity. Recent requests have come from Washington, Philadelphia and Rochester. Subscribers of the Press will do well to preserve these articles.

Many from here are planning to attend the amateur night under the leadership and direction of Charles K. Field, known everywhere on the radio as "Cheerio" and whose summer home is at Newfane on Friday evening, July 30 in the Auditorium at Brattleboro. Tickets must be secured in advance from E. J.
 Shea of the Lions Club, Brattleборо.

The visitation of Rt. Wor. District Deputy Grand Master of Masons of the state of Massachusetts to Harmony Lodge in Northfield has been set for Friday evening, October 8.

The average motorist taking a vacation trip of 1000 miles this summer will pay about $2.50 in state gasoline taxes, according to statistics reported by the department of agriculture.

Struck Ten Posts;
 Was Fined $25.00

Last Friday morning in District court at Greenfield, Max Kapiloff of Keene, was fined $25 by Judge Phillip Ball for knowingly going away without making himself known after causing damage to property of the state, when he hit about ten posts on the right hand side of the highway just this side of the Bennett Meadow bridge.

It all happened on Saturday,
 July 3 while Kapiloff was driving north on his way back to Keene. State Trooper William Mack who investigated testified that the damage amounted to $33 and that the discovery of a state poultry permit near the place located the defendant.
 When located Kapiloff admitted striking the posts.

HOW TOWNER'S NEW VERNON HOME WILL LOOK

This is a photograph of a plaster model of the 17-room, modern home which Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Towner are building in Vernon for a year-around residence. The house will be located on the bluff just west of the bend in the river and convenient to the state highway. The Vernon Green Tea House is directly northwest a short distance on the west side of the highway. Nearby is the Vernon Union Church.

Seminary Graduate Has Done Great Work Remarkable Record

Among the interesting personalities who attended the recent Northfield Seminary centenary alumnae celebration was Miss Sarah W. Pyle of the class of 1899. Miss Pyle is known as the Jane Addams of Wilmington, Delaware. She is the founder, organizer, and resident head of the Wilmington People's Settlement.

One tiny room in the poverty-stricken East side of the city was the beginning, in 1901, of the settlement work. There were but seven members in the cooking, sewing, cobbling and Venetian iron work classes for the boys and girls of the neighborhood. Now in its 35th year, the settlement boasts a $50,000 establishment with a domestic science, a regular size gymnasium and a dispensary. The playground connected with the settlement which was given in memory of Mrs. Lamont DuPont by her children has a wading pool with inverted showers for the small children.

Miss Pyle went through Northfield Seminary on a personal scholarship from D. L. Moody and, during the Endowment Fund campaign, she wrote Mr. W. R. Moody enclosing a check to cover the cost of her schooling. Mr. Moody replied that he had looked all through his father's books and had found no charge against her, so the money was added to the Endowment Fund. Mr. W. R. Moody went to Wilmington in 1920 to attend the celebration after the mortgage on the settlement had been paid off. In 1927, the 25th anniversary of the settlement was observed and Prof. Frank L. Duley attended from Northfield. Dr. Wilfred Grenfell spoke to a huge audience of friends of the settlement in the Shubert playhouse, an auditorium holding over 1500 people. He called attention to the fact both Miss Pyle and he had been influenced in the choice of their life work by Dwight L. Moody.

Miss Pyle dedicates her entire work to D. L. Moody. She says that she and her work have developed each other and that Northfield Seminary is behind it all.

The membership of the settlement has grown from the little circle of seven to between 800 and 1000. Between 60 and 70 thousand people attend the classes and programs each year. A sustaining fund which the members have raised through all these years with soup sales and rummage sales now amounts to $50,000. These people who form the membership of the settlement are poor, yet when there is need of money to continue the work they are not poor in spirit. They can't afford to give money, but they can sacrifice it. For 30 years they have raised at least $500 a year which a kind friend duplicates.

Northfield Seminary is proud of Miss Pyle and her great work.

LOCALS

A group of Girl Scouts from Springfield visited the Youths Hostel this week. They are taking the hostellers trip through New Hampshire and Vermont on "bikes."

The 13 millionth Chevrolet rolled off the assembly line at the Flint plant of General Motors last week according to a statement by Paul Jordan, the local agent.

Northfield Grange

There was a regular meeting of Northfield Grange Tuesday night. Worthy Master Edward C. Bolton presided.

The following officers were elected to fill out the current year: Mrs. Gertrude Gibson, Lecturer, and Clayton Miller, assistant steward, and they were installed by Past Master Dorothy Miller.

It was voted to have a regular meeting on the night of Aug. 10 and on Aug. 24 there will be a picnic, the place to be announced later.

SERVEL ELECTROLUX

RUNS ON KEROSENE — FOR FEW CENTS A DAY
(COAL OIL)

HERE'S GREAT NEWS for families living beyond the gas mains and power lines! The same modern convenience and savings of modern refrigeration that city homes enjoy... can now be yours! And at low cost! Servel Electrolux, the Kerosene Refrigerator, is identical in all important respects with the famous Gas Refrigerator which has been serving hundreds of thousands of fine city homes and apartments during the past ten years.

HAS NO MACHINERY TO WEAR

A single kerosene burner circulates the refrigerant, which produces food-preserving cold and freezes ice cubes and desserts. There is no friction, no noise, no moving, wearing parts. Owners report that this ideal farm refrigerator not only makes their work easier and their lives happier, but also saves enough to pay for itself. Write for literature.
